

Cute the strips apart and distribute randomly so that each person receives ½ of a quote. Ask participants to get up, find their match and introduce each other.

My first job was working in an Orange Juice factory,
but I got canned. Couldn't concentrate.

Then I worked in the woods as a Lumberjack,
but just couldn't hack it, so they gave me the axe.

After that, I tried being a Tailor,
but wasn't suited for it -- mainly because it was a sew-sew job.

Next, I tried working in a Muffler Factory,
but that was too exhausting.

Then, tried being a Chef - figured it would add a little spice to my life,
but just didn't have the thyme.

Next, I attempted being a Deli Worker,
but any way I sliced it... couldn't cut the mustard.

My best job was a Musician,
but others said that I wasn't noteworthy.

I studied a long time to become a Doctor,
but didn't I have any patience.

Next, was a job in a Shoe Factory.

Tried hard but just didn't fit in.

I became a Professional Fisherman,
but discovered I couldn't live on my net income.

Managed to get a good job working for a Pool Maintenance Company,
but the work was just too draining.

So then I got a job in a Workout Center,
but they said I wasn't fit for the job.

After many years of trying to find steady work,
I finally got a job as a Historian - until I realized there was no future in it.

My last job was working in Starbucks,
but had to quit because it was the same old grind.

So I tried retirement
and I discovered I'm perfect for that job!
